Deliverance from evil spirits...

No matter what temptations you are facing today, whether you are asking God to lead you out of a difficult trial, the devil should always be deliverance from evil spirits...

how jesus saves us from temptation

Jesus is the only way to salvation. In the words of the apostles Peter and John, when they encountered a great man who tried to lead them astray, they drew on the words of God's word to show him the right path.

the location of the true knowledge of good and evil and why that matters

Moses created the world from nothing in the image of God, and he was the only one who could see the true nature of things. In contrast, the devil is the enemy of God and the devil's nature is to deceive people.

we should only obey your conscience, oaths, vows, and commands of the present age. All the works of the devil are against the will of God, and the devil will be punished for his sins.
